NUMB. 410.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From SATURDAY December 26, to SATURDAY January 2, 1741.

GENOA, Auguſt 30.

FOR two Months paſt there has been ſo exceſſive a Heat here, accompanied with a Drought, that it has entirely deſtroy'd the Fruits of the Earth. Publick Prayers have upon this Occaſion been put up in all the Churches for Rain; notwithſtanding which, every Thing is burnt up, almoſt all the Ponds are dried up, as well as the Rivers, in ſuch Manner, as that all the Mills upon them are rendered incapable of working.

Revel, Sept. 10 Ten Swediſh Men of War came before this Port three Days ago, and advanced almoſt within Cannon ſhot of the Caſtle, from whence the Artillery fir'd upon two of them that were forwardeſt, and obliged them to ſheer off, as did the reſt of the Fleet immediately after; ſo that 'tis ſuppos'd it came with no other Deſign than to take a View of it.

Peterſburgh, Sept. 12. On the 7th Inſtant an Officer diſpatch'd by Marſhal Laſcy, arriv'd here with the Standards and Colours taken from the Swedes at the Battle of Willmerſtrand. General Wrangel and the Officers which were taken Priſoners with him, arriv'd here on the 9th. It's ſaid that all the Troops in Wilmerſtrand, excepting 2000 Men who immediately threw down their Arms, were either put to the Sword, or oblig'd to throw themſelves into the Sea, ſo much the Ruſſians were exaſperated at the Swedes having ſprung two Mines during the Time of the Aſſault.

Leghorn, Sept 15 They write from Tunis, that the Bey of that Place had again cauſed all French Ships to be ſeiz'd, and had made Slaves of their Crews.

Montpellier, Sept. 20. In the Night between the 15th and 16th Inſtant, there was a kind of Deluge in part of this Province, occaſioned by a violent Storm, which laſted twenty-four Hours. The River Gordon overflowed in ſo extraordinary a Manner, that the City of Aleth was twenty Feet under Water, inſomuch that many Houſes were thrown down, and carried away, much People buried in their Ruins, all their Goods and Merchandize loſt, and their Cattle drown'd; all Parts through which the Waters paſs'd were cover'd with Mud, four Inches thick. The City of Andeuze, and the ſeveral other Towns ſituate on the Banks of that River, ſuffer'd the ſame Fate The River Arbeche, on the Side of Uzeff, overflowed in like Manner, and did no leſs Damage to the Town of St. Ambroiſe; the Bridge there was carried away, as alſo many Dwelling-Houſes.

Hague, October 11. Letters from Hamburgh, dated the 6th, bring us the following extraordinary Piece of Intelligence; viz. that Kouli Kan, in the Month of July laſt, defeated an Army of 200,000 Turks in the Neighbourhood of Bagdad; that he has ſince taken the Cities of Erzerum, &c. and was in full March for Natolia The ſame News is come hither by another Rout, with this additional Circumſtance, That the Schach expects Egypt to be given up to him, as having anciently belong'd to the Kings of Perſia.

NEW-YORK, October 26.

By a Sloop arrived here from Jamaica, we have an Account, that a Spaniſh Man of War of 60 Guns was brought in there, juſt as the Veſſel ſail'd from thence.

Nov. 9 Laſt Week Capt McNeal arrived here from the Bay of Honduras, who touched at the Musketo Shore, where they had Advice by a Dutch trading Veſſel from Chagre, that Commodore Anſon had taken the City of Panama in the South Sea.

Nov. 23 In Capt Bryant who is arrived here from London, came Count Zinzendorff, with his Retinue, and we hear he intends ſoon for Pennſylvania, having purchaſed the Land Mr. Seward bought at the Forks of Delaware.

Yeſterday arrived here Capt. Seymour from Jamaica, from whence we hear that the Admiral ſtill remains at Cumberland, where a ſtrong Battery of upwards of thirty Guns was built.

Capt. Neate of Philadelphia, in a large new Ship of 22 6 Pounders, was arrived at Jamaica, having in her Paſſage met with two Spaniſh Privateers, who in a Calm attack'd him; but Capt. Neate bravely defending himſelf, after a long Fight drove both the Spaniards off, having kill'd a great Number of their Men, one of them made toward the Shore with all Expedition, both Pumps being at work and the Men baling out the Water, but ſhe ſeemed to grow deeper, and Night coming on he loſt ſight of them both; next Morning Capt. Neate ſaw one of them again, but that which he had diſabled he could not ſee, and imagines ſhe ſunk. On his Arrival at Jamaica Affidavits were taken concerning the Matter, in order to recover the 5 £. for each Man kill'd on Board the Enemy, and Commodore Trevor order'd that none of the Men ſhould be preſs'd. Capt. Neate had one Man wounded in the Breaſt, one loſt an Arm, and one a Leg, but none kill'd.

The Ship mentioned ſome time ſince to be ſeen going into Jamaica without Maſts, proves to be a Ship of 24 Guns, belonging to the Havannah, and bound from Laguira to that Place, with Money to pay off the Soldiers; the Bills of Lading had been found, but they had not yet diſcover'd the Money.

The Account we had from Curacoa of the Death of Don Blaſs is confirm'd, alſo the Blowing up of Admiral Torres's Ship, and that three Men of War were ſunk at the Havannah on the Appearance of our eighty Gun Ships as they were bound home.

Nov 30 By the Veſſels that arriv'd here laſt Week from Jamaica, we hear, that at Cumberland on Cuba there had been a great deal of Rain, inſomuch that the Freſhes came down in ſuch a Manner as that the Place where the Camp ſtood was ſeveral Feet under Water; but an old Spaniard, a Priſoner in the Army, gave the general Notice, that they ſhou'd remove the Camp, for the Freſhes wou'd come down in Ten Days, and that that Spot was generally overflowed, whereupon the Camp, Baggage, &c. were all removed to an Eminence, and the Danger avoided; however ſix or ſeven Fool-hardy People were drowned, and all the Ships in the River brought Home their Anchors.
